KILBANE WILL BE A BUSY BOXER

Receives Offers to Meet Freddie Welsh and "Kid" Williams.

ROYAL WELCOME FOR GRIFFITHS

Akron, Ohio, Honors Fighter on Return from Australia-Bouts To-night.

Johnny Kilbane, the featherweight champion of the world, will be busy during the next few months, if present plans are carried out. He has received offers from Harry Edwards, manager of the Olympia Athletic Association, in Philadelphia, to box six-round bouts with Freddie Weish, the lightweight champion of the world, and "Kid" Williams, who rules supreme in the bantam class. No definite date has been set for the contests as yet. It is believed that little difficulty will be experi-

According to the present plans, Kilbane and Williams will meet first, the weight to be 122 ringside. Then, two weeks later, Welsh will be taken on if he will do 133 pounds ringside.

Kilbane is hailed as a wonder in the Quaker City. He has boxed there almost a dozen times aince he won his championship and is becoming more popular with every appearance. His dever boxing is evidently appreciated to a greater extent over there than in this city, where all except the heavy weights are expected to fight. Of course, nothing is expected of the big men, and they are capable of doing that Perhaps if Johnny showed half the aggressiveness in his matches here that he is credited with abroad he might be popular.

Should Kilbane and Williams meet a most interesting match will be seen. It would be a little too short for Williams. He might do well over the long soule.

Australia. He was met at the station by a committee and paraded around the city. Fifty automobiles were in line, and there was the usual band, which played "When Johnny Comes Marching lowing: Home Again" and "Hail to the Chief," among other selections. The bouts to-night will be of interest, with half a dozen well known men boxing. Sam Taylor, of the battleship New York, and "Bandsman" Jack Keating, of the Washington, will cross gloves at the Broadway Sporting Club. In the semi-final bout at the same club "Irish" Jack Smith and "Sailor" Maher will mingle. Among the other more important contests will be "Young" Drummie vs. Patsey Cline, at the Fairmont A. C.; Harry Gattle vs. Barney Phillips, and Chicago and Detroit. "Irish" Jack Smith and "Sailor" Maher will mingle. Ten-Round Bout.

Johnny Martin, the local lightweight, outpointed Paul Edwards in the principal bout of ten rounds at the new Long Acre Athletic Club last night.

Edwards tried vainly to end the bout by a knockout in the last two rounds by furious fighting, but found Martin still strong and a willing boxer.

Massachusetts Aggies.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.]

Williamstown, Mass., Dec. 18.—Williams opened its hockey season here this afternoon by defeating Massachusette Agricultural College by a score of 2 to 0 on the Weston Field rink.

The Cutler brothers were responsible for both goals, which were made in the first half. "Con" Cutler shot them both after taking the puck down the rink with the aid of his brother. Although team work was in evidence when the goals were being made, there was no pretence at it on the part of either team in the second halt. Rough playing was in evidence on both sides.

His latest sale of a piece of property was made no later than yesterday, when he resold the five story double flathouse at 64 West 100th st., on a lot 25x100 feet, which he purchased at auction on December 1. He received for the plot three offers from different parties, each at a substantial profit, before disposing of it. In February he sold the property at 343 West 52d st. to Michael J. Callahan, and later in to Michael J. Callahan, and later in the same month he bought at auction from the Blair estate 414 West 41st st, which he resold soon after to the Youdonald Realty Company. In April Mr. Tabolt bought at auction 412 West 55th st., and a short time later sold it to Thomas Hinton, who in turn resold it to St. Mary's Hospital.
